

ChileGlobal Internship Program

ChileGlobal, the international network coordinated by Fundación Imagen de Chile, in association with Royal Consumer Information Products, Inc., are searching for two professionals of excellence, interested in working as interns at Royal Inc. for a period of six months starting in august 2011.

ChileGlobal is a network of successful Chilean business owners, executives and professionals who live abroad and have an interest to contribute and share the Chilean economic development. This network is managed by Fundación Imagen de Chile.

Royal Consumer Information Products, Inc. is a leading supplier of office products, accessories and supplies for the consumer and small business markets. With its' roots in the Royal Typewriter Company, founded in 1906, Royal's product line has evolved to include PDAs/electronic organizers, GPS and navigation systems, weather stations, and a wide range of imaging supplies. Royal Consumer Information Products' headquarters is located in Somerset, New Jersey – USA.

In this opportunity we are looking for the following candidates:

1. Student of Electronic or Computer Science (Engineer)

The intern would be required to work in different areas of the company and he/ she will be part of a team responsible for designing and engineering the new web page of the company. The candidate should be a recent graduate or senior of Civil Engineering or Computer Science, the candidate must know the languages for programing web pages, including creating and managing data bases, possible interaction with AS400 inventory system.

2. Industrial Designer

The intern would be required to work in different areas of the company and he/ she will be part of a team responsible for designing the new web page of the company. The candidate should be a recent graduate or senior of Industrial Design with knowledge on graphic web design.

Required Qualifications

Interns are selected among candidates that show a strong university endorsement. At the moment of applying, each candidate must have finished the course requirements for a university degree correspondent to the scientific or technological area pertinent to the requirements of the company

Candidates must present good oral and English writing skills.

The selected candidates will be supported through the process of obtaining the required visa.

Application procedure:

- a) A letter/ personal statement presenting the reasons for applying to ChileGlobal's Internship Program
- b) Certificates of university degrees and course history
- c) A sample of research carried out or papers published
- d) 2 references

We offer:

Possibility to gain experience abroad (New York, EE.UU.) during a period of 6 months; all expenses covered, including flight ticket, assistance in obtaining visa, and living expenditure.

All persons interested in applying for this post are requested to contact:

phidalgo@imagendechile.cl